

Allied Health Professional of the Year

Congratulations to our very own Dr Bernadette Brady, physiotherapist and researcher. Dr Brady was named Allied Health Professional of the Year at the 2024 NSW Health Excellence in Allied Health Awards.

Dr Brady is an asset to our research community and exemplifies what it means to provide safe, high-quality care. She won the 2023 District Allied Health Professional of the Year Award for her outstanding work supporting patients and leading research projects focussed on culturally-appropriate, evidence-based care.

We are so lucky to have such talent within our District.

SPHERE Seed Funding Grant 2024

The SPHERE Seed Funding Grant Scheme 2024 is intended to encourage new large-scale, ambitious programs of work that bring people together across and beyond the SPHERE partnership. Applications close 26 April 2024.

In order to be successful in acquiring SPHERE Seed Funding (Investigator initiated Partnership Grant) Support, applications will need to:

- Identify who the industry partner is
- Provide evidence of cash support for the project from the partner organisation
- Show how the research will leverage a larger funding opportunity.

2-5 grants of $100,000-$200,000 according to merit (up to a total pool of $500,000) is available. For further details, please view the application guidelines available from s.khandelwal@unsw.edu.au.

Research Translation: Taking Your Research to the Bedside

AHRA Women's Health Research, Translation and Impact Network is hosting a webinar on 16 April 2024 from 12-1pm and will focus on research translation and give examples of how research findings can be used to drive changes in healthcare, including examples of knowledge into action, guideline development and policy-making, and ethical considerations.
