

ADCO are coming !

It is exciting to announce as of the 28th Feb 2019 ADCO construction will be the company building and delivering our NEW Hospital. ADCO commenced in the health building world in 1972, recently they have completed Brookvale Health Centre, Joondalup Health Prescient WA, St Vincent's Private, to name a few. Outside of health they have a huge corporate client base. We look forward to working collaboratively with them to deliver our state of the art hospital for the Southern Highlands.

What has happened in the last two months ?

- ✓ Main driveway and future parking constructed.
- ✓ All new services for main build installed.
- ✓ Enabling works in the final phase.
- ✓ Major Medical Equipment MM&E audit attended.
- ✓ 7 day trial of P1 car park closure a success.
- ✓ 1st commissioning meeting with HI.
- ✓ BDH Repurposing workshop attended. Looking at other departments and moves in 2021

Where to from here?

- ◆ Enhanced early works to complete early April and main works commences This has equal amounts of sadness as we have to say goodbye to HUTCHINSON BUILDERS who have been so amazing to work with their professionalism, workmanship and 'can do' approach has been such a joy. Big thank you goes to Josh Cabanas and Josh Innes who really made our early steps into redevelopment so carefree, thanks from all Bowral Hospital
- ◆ Bowral Street P1 main carpark will close at the commencement of the main works.
- ◆ Breaking NEWS: 'Bowral Hospital given an extra $55 million'
