

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Department of Anaesthesia and Intensive Care

BASIC for Nurses

Date: 23rd Thursday and 24th Friday April 2026 (Provider Course)

Venue: Liverpool Intensive Care Unit, Liverpool Hospital, SWSLHD, NSW, Australia

Cost: $280 (Internal SWSLHD participants); $350 (External Participants)

Target audience: For Critical Care / High Dependency Unit Novices

Format: Course manual, lectures, skill stations

Topics include:

- Basic nursing assessment of critically ill patients
- Basic respiratory physiology
- Acute respiratory failure
- Mechanical ventilation
 - modes and settings
- Mechanical ventilation
 - trouble shooting
- Respiratory monitoring in ICU
- Nursing care of the ventilated patient
- Basic cardiovascular physiology
- Basic hemodynamic monitoring in ICU
- Life threatening arrhythmias
- Shock
- Oliguria
- Airway management
- Non-invasive ventilation
- Basic neurological assessment in ICU
- Intracranial hypertension
- Arterial blood gases interpretation
- Clinical handover
- Communication in ICU
- Cardio-pulmonary resuscitation in ICU
- Transport of critically ill patients
- Sedation
- Acute pain
- Nutritional support
- Infection control

Registration Link: CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Registration Enquiries:

Sharonann.Shunker@health.nsw.gov.au

Margaret.Nicholson@health.nsw.gov.au