

LIVERPOOL EDUCATION AND RESEARCH CENTRE EASTERN CAMPUS

7 JUNE 2022

A stylized, pixelated illustration of a human face in shades of red and orange. The face is composed of various geometric shapes and patterns. A white outline of a brain is positioned in the upper central part of the face, above the eyes. The eyes are also stylized with white and black patterns. The overall aesthetic is digital and abstract.

Neurological Emergencies and Management Optimisation

Neurological Emergencies and Management Optimisation

Faculty- Emergency Department, Liverpool Hospital

Dr Jennifer Davidson - NDOT/DEMT , Senior Staff Specialist, Course Coordinator

A/Prof Ben Taylor - Senior Staff Specialist

Dr Kate Goulding - Advanced Trainee and Clinical Superintendent

A/Prof Kent Robinson - Senior Staff Specialist

A/Prof Paul Middleton - Senior Staff Specialist

Dr Úna Nic Ionmhain - Staff Specialist

Dr Peter Wyllie - Senior Staff Specialist

Dr Rachel Turner - DEMT, Senior Staff Specialist

Registration
7.45am

PROGRAM

8.00am Intracerebral haemorrhage - the latest evidence to guide your management Dr Jennifer Davidson

8.45am Subarachnoid Haemorrhage-the current state of play A/Prof Kent Robinson

9.30am Status epilepticus -what's new A/Prof Ben Taylor

11.00am Non traumatic weakness Dr Kate Goulding

11.45am Intracerebral hypertension and herniation syndromes Dr Úna Nic Ionmhain

1.30pm Acute stroke- thrombolysis and clot retrieval-the latest evidence A/Prof Paul Middleton

2.15pm Meningitis and encephalitis– current therapies and controversies Dr Rachel Turner

3.15pm Raries but scaries – neurological cases Dr Peter Wyllie

Morning Tea
10.15am

Lunch
12.30pm

Break
3pm