18 April 2018

Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital staff to commemorate
ANZAC Day

Staff and volunteers at Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital commemorated ANZAC Day this year, in partnership with Bankstown RSL, with a service at the Hospital.

The Hospital held a special ceremony on Wednesday 18 April at 10.30am in the ANZAC Courtyard.

Bankstown Hospital General Manager Ms Karen Edwards said a nurse’s pledge was read to acknowledge healthcare workers who have served and continue to serve Australia in various war and conflict zones around the world.

“ANZAC Day is a day to respectfully honour all men and women of the Australian Defence Force, both past and present, while also creating a lasting legacy for all Australians,” Ms Edwards said.

“Staff and volunteers will come together to commemorate those who lost their lives in service to their country and to acknowledge their sacrifice.”

Ms Edwards said sprigs of rosemary were also handed out to those attending the ceremony.

Photos: Photos of today’s ceremony are available from the Media Unit. Please call 8738 6848 if you are interested.