18 April 2018

Fairfield Hospital to commemorate ANZAC Day

Fairfield Hospital will commemorate ANZAC Day this year with a service that will recognise the contribution of all servicemen and women.

The service will be held on Tuesday 24 April beginning at 10.30am and will include two guest speakers - World War II veteran Cecil Boland, a 91-year-old dialysis patient, and Paul Bryant from Fairfield RSL.

Fairfield Hospital General Manager Arnold Tammekand said the hospital was glad to be able to recognise the service and sacrifice of the past and present members of the Australian Defence Force.

“On ANZAC Day, we pause to remember the men and women who have given so much to their country while asking for so little in return and ensuring theirs is a lasting legacy for all Australians,” Mr Tammekand said.

“All staff, volunteers and friends of the Hospital are invited to help us come together and commemorate the service as a community.”

Photo opportunity: The service will be held at 10.30am on April 24 at the front entry of the Hospital, near the flag poles, opposite both Oral Health Services and Prairiewood Community Health Centre.

If media would like to attend, please contact the Media Unit on 8738 6848.