Refugee Week: Share a meal, share a story

Refugee Week is an opportunity to celebrate the contribution refugees make to our society and also raise awareness about their strength, resilience and stories.

This year is also special as it marks 20 years since the NSW Refugee Health Service was established to assist refugees in NSW.

To celebrate this occasion, and in line with Refugee Week’s theme of Share a Meal, Share a story, we will sample foods from around the world and hear stories about the power of food to connect people.

Master Chef’s Hoda Kobeissi will be cooking and there will be international food stalls to enjoy a range of cuisines.

The event will be held at Fairfield Youth and Community Centre, 55 Vine St, Fairfield on Tuesday 18 June.

Formalities
10.30am: Guest speakers Refugee Council of Australia Chief Executive Paul Power, NSW Refugee Health Service Director Mitchell Smith and address from South Western Sydney Local Health District Chief Executive Amanda Larkin
11.30am: Cake cutting ceremony and plaque presentation
12noon: Free cooking demonstration by Hoda Kobeissi from Master Chef, with food samples given and story sharing.
12.30pm: International food stalls
